5. Folkloristic and folklore material collection techniques are also taught so as to enable them to study the vast Manipuri folklore.

Programme Outcome:

The department adopts the curriculum of Manipur University for Honours and General course. The texts, the topics of honours and general course are spread out through six semesters and keeping in mind the students' growing maturity and familiarity with the subject. The curriculum and teaching learning process involve methods to help students appreciate Manipuri Literature by being able to develop the critical faculty, necessary to analyse and understand more than what is available in the printed text.

The course tries to motivate the students to do research work in the field of Manipuri Literature, culture and folklore.

- The department attempts to make students familiar with the extensive range of literary works of Manipuri Literature. Students learn to comprehend, analyse and interpret literary texts critically by the end of the course, besides learning to improve their creative writing skills.

The department implements several innovative teaching methods to make learning fun and stress-free as far as practicable.
